HAIR FALLING OUT.

FOR SALE BY

C. W. MACFARLANE,

Sole Agent, Honolulu.

Neat pamphlet free on application. P. O. Box 292, Telephone 26.

Honolulu, April 21, 1896.

Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble.

Yours truly, J. B. DANIELS.

you was, I was going to say a few words."

"As to her?"

"As to that 'ere dog o' mine. I hev never put him up ag'in a b'ar as yet, but I think he could hold his own."

"You must be crazy," exclaimed the owner of the bear. "Why, he'd chaw your dog up at one gulp."

"Mebbe he would, stranger, mebbe he would, but somehow or t'other I can't believe that he would. I've know-ed that dog fur three y'ars, and I don't believe your b'ar could chaw him up."

"Well, it stands to reason that he could. From the looks o' him I should say that almost any sort of dog could roll that dog o' yours over. He's ready to run now."

"Yes, he looks that way," slowly remarked the old man, "but that's his deceivin' pint. What's the value of your b'ar?"

"Fifty dollars."

"Waal, I've got $50 in gold which says he can't chaw my dog up in no one minit, nor five nor ten minutes."

"What's that? You want to put your dog ag'in my bear?"

"I do, stranger, and my money is ready. We'll turn 'em loose on the platform, and if your b'ar chaws up my dog the cash is yours."

The owner of the bear had but $20, but he put up his Winchester for the balance, and as soon as the stakes were up we got into the station and left the dog and the bear man to arrange things. Some of the slats to the cage were loosened, and after a few minutes all was ready and the two men joined us inside. The dog scratched at the door and whined to get in, and after a look about him the bear left the cage and started for the canine.

"One gulp and your dog is gone!" shouted the bear man. But he wasn't out of the woods yet. The dog was off the platform and up the trail in a flash, while the bear followed at a slower gait. They had been out of sight five minutes when the bear man suddenly exclaimed: "Why—why—that bear won't come back!"

"No, I reckon not," replied the old man.

"But—but—"

"But the bet was that he'd chaw up my dog, and he hasn't done it."

The bear man looked up and down and around, and the situation finally dawned upon him and he said to the old man:

"Stranger, did you ever strike a full blown idiot before?"

"Yes; two or three."

"And did you leave 'em dead broke and far from home?"

"Oh, no! I allus felt sorry fur 'em and left 'em sunthin fur railroad fare."

And he handed the bear man $10 of the $20, took the rifle on his arm and rode away down the trail without looking back. M. QUAD.

More Reasons.

Why people come long distances to buy at the Palama Grocery. Reason No. 1—Because one customer tells another how much they saved by dealing at this live and let live establishment. Reason No. 2—Because the saving from their grocery bill helps them to pay their house rent. If you don't believe what our customers say, just give us a call and be convinced. HARRY CANNON.
